Nation Raises Space Sights After Triumph

Four-Ton Monster Visible as It Makes 100-Minute Rounds

WASHINGTON (AP) - The United States, triumphant at hurling a four-ton satellite into orbit, raised its space sights another notch today.

The men who built the earthcircling device, which dwarfs the Soviet Union's 11/2-ton Sputnik III, talked about putting a man aboard another one and sending it to Venus or Mars.

President Eisenhower called it 'a distinct step forward ... (which) opens new opportunities kind." The Pentagon echoed his to the United States and all manwords, accenting the peaceful aspects of launching a satellite the size of a Pullman car.

'Dirigible-Shaped' Object Seen Here

A Columbus man, visiting Washington C. H. Thursday eveing, said he watched a large "dirigible-shaped" object fly across the sky for about 10 minutes at about 5:30 p. m.

Louis Christy, told employes of Carroll Halliday, Inc., the object seen to the west of the CCC Highway, looked about 300 to 500 feet long. Christy guessed the object was flying about 30 miles high and said it looked as if it were on fire.

A Columbus man, visiting Washington C. H. Thursday eveing, said he watched a large "dirigible-shaped" object fly across the sky for about 10 minutes at about 5:30 p. m. Louis Christy, told employes of Carroll Halliday, Inc., the object seen to the west of the CCC Highway, looked about 300 to 500 feet long. Christy guessed the object was flying about 30 miles high and said it looked as if it were on fire.

But early comment from members of Congress indicated a preference to dwell on what it means in military terms.

And even in Moscow, celebrating the 3,000th orbiting of Sputnik III, man-in-the-street reaction was favorable. A m e r ican reporters, bereft of any official comment approached a cab driver who said: "Good. It gives us compet-

Brush Fire Kills Forest Ranger

SAN JUAN CAPISTRANO, Calif. (AP)-A forest ranger has been trapped and killed by flames in California's devastating brush fire, now in its sixth day and still out of control.

More than 100 square miles of brush-covered mountains, valleys and fields in three Southern California counties have been blackened by the fire.

Joe Adams, 34, a forest ranger of Clarksdale, Ariz., was scouting fire conditions Thursday when flames shot up a mountainside and engulfed him as he stood on a rock outeropping.

The fire started last Sunday.

Brush Fire Kills Forest Ranger

SAN JUAN CAPISTRANO, Calif. (AP)-A forest ranger has been trapped and killed by flames in California's devastating brush fire, now in its sixth day and still out of control.

More than 100 square miles of brush-covered mountains, valleys and fields in three Southern California counties have been blackened by the fire.

Joe Adams, 34, a forest ranger of Clarksdale, Ariz., was scouting fire conditions Thursday when flames shot up a mountainside and engulfed him as he stood on a rock outcropping. The fire started last Sunday.

Firm Keeps Promise To Share Wealth

PRINCETON, N. J. (AP)-It's a long time from June to December but the wait paid off $67,000 to employes of the Kingston Trap Rock Co.

They gambled on improved business for the quarry company and it will mean an extra $150 in pay. Last June, employes of the firm demanded a 10-cent hourly wage

The boss, Asa Farr, said no. "Business is down, we just can't afford it," Farr told Peter W. Weber, business manager of Local 825, Operating Engineers.

So they made a deal. If Kingston shows a profit at the end of year, Farr said, workers would benefit. Okay, said the

Southern States Due To See Atlas

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP) . The Smithsonian Astrophysical Observatory says America's mighty Atlas satellite should be visible over the southern parts of the United States tonight.

The Smithsonian said that because of the angle at which it was launched the satellite would travel north almost as far as Cape Hatteras.

John White, observatory public information officer, said the satellite should be much brighter than any previous satellite because of its low point of about 115 miles. He said it should be clearly visible to the naked eye, looking like a fast moving bright star.

Pressure Groups and Public Economy

Speaker of the House Sam Rayburn, who probably has more real power over federal fiscal legislation at this time than most any other individual, has ruled out a general tax reduction for next year.

This is not surprising in view of the huge deficit now being rolled up, and the prospects of still more deficits in the future, judging by reports of what many pressure groups are planning to do.

However, tax reduction on a general scale is one thing, while tax revision can be a very different thing.

The purpose of any sound tax system, aside from the amount of money it is to raise, is to obtain this money with the least possible damage to the instruments of production and distribution on which everyone in this nation depends upon for

Due to price and wage inflation, the depreciation allowances which are supposed to enable industry to accumulate

These same experts assert that punitively high taxes on business earnings also stand in the way of economic growth, particularly in lines of smaller business.

Everyone is talking about the need for a continually expanding national economy, capable both of taking care of our swift population growth and further improving living and working standards. The kind of tax system we have will determine whether or not that desirable goal is achieved.

Meantime, it is to be hoped, that the pressure groups which are demanding more and greater public money spending will not offset any real efforts which may be made for our economy.

250,000,000; Italy, 190,000,000; Netherlands, 170,000,000.

The remainder went to other countries including the Bank for International Settlements.

It is because the American dollar has been regarded as a "hard currency," one supported by this board of gold, that it became the principal currency of the world, much desired everywhere and employed as a basis of stability in other countries.

Money in exchange, among foreign countries, operates on confidence and loses in value as confidence lessens.

Nobody knows for sure what amount of gold the Soviet Universal State holds. It is known that gold has been mined steadily throughout the Communist period.

The reports show that during 1958, gold flowed out of the United States to the amount of $2,200,-000,000 and that the following figures are significant:

Great Britain, $900,000,000; Belgium, 275,000,000; Switzerland, 250,000,000; Italy, 190,000,000; Netherlands, 170,000,000.

The remainder went to other countries including the Bank for International Settlements.

It is because the American dollar has been regarded as a "hard currency," one supported by this board of gold, that it became the principal currency of the world, much desired everywhere and employed as a basis of stability in other countries.

Money in exchange, among foreign countries, operates on confidence and loses in value as confidence lessens.

Nobody knows for sure what amount of gold the Soviet Universal State holds. It is known that gold has been mined steadily throughout the Communist period.

But come January things will be popping on both the congressional and diplomatic fronts.

In the Senate some Northern Democrats and Republicans will start a fight to make it easier to smash a filibuster. This means a quarrel with Southern Democrats, probably a bitter one.

In the House, Southern Democrats will be in another fight: over a committee recommendation to bar an Arkansas segregationist, Dr. Dale Alford of Little Rock, from taking the seat now held by Rep. Brooks Hays (D-A Ark). Alford was elected over Hays by a write-in vote. Senate Republicans will be having a family battle. A batch of Republicans, who consider themselves more progressive than their present Senate leaders, will try to take over. The political sharpshooting will get off to a running start in early January when President Eisenhower dumps his State of the Union message in the lap of Congress. This message sets forth his program for 1959.

Not long after his State of the Union message, Eisenhower will send Congress his budget for the fiscal year starting next July 1. This is his estimate of how much he thinks the government should spend next year. There'll be sparring over that all year.

Some Food Markets Delay Turkey Offers

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS Housewives who can't decide when to buy Christmas turkey won't get much help from supermarket and grocery store advertisements this week

Some stores offer gobblers now while others will unveil their special prices early next week.

For housewives who don't want turkey there are special bargains on pork loin, hams, leg of lamb and holiday items such as rock cornish hen and Minnesota goose. The shopper who wants to save a bit now in preparation for next week can usually find chuck roast.

Lamb prices are four cents a pound lower in some areas this week while other meats are about unchanged. Eggs reversed their recent trend and rose two to eight cents a dozen over a wide

The sweet little native Fayette Countian is unhappy only because she has been hobbled and can't keep her house looking as neat as

She also wants to get back to cooking her own meals.

Mrs. Wills, who lives in a small five-room bungalow at the rear of 531 N. Hinde St., is usually alone with her blindness, doing most everything a normal housewife does at home.

Her husband died in 1942.

ON NOV. 30 she spilled a dipper of hot water on her foot. Although it gave her a great deal of pain, the agile-minded woman wouldn't let it bother her in her work around the house until last Monday when she felt a pretty big blister on her foot:

She called the family doctor but he was out of town.

Tuesday another doctor told her she had an infection. Thursd a y the physician told her she had blood poisoning and must go to the hospital or lose the foot.

Just about buried in the multitudinous preparations for Christmas are a set of religious observance days of particular signifieverything on the television net- cance to the liturgical churches. They're called Ember Days.

> There are 12 of them during the year - the Wednesdays, Fridays Sunday in Lent, Whitsunday, Sept. 14 and Dec. 13. Today is one. In many churches Ember Days are periods of fast and abstinence gotten dead in Purgatory. that they were observed as early as the third century

Some schools of thought feel they began as carryovers from the ancient pagan festivals of the spring planting, the first harvests of grain and the autumn ripening of the grapes. Others hold that Ember Days started as periods of fast in preparation for Christmas, Easter and Pentecost with a fourth set of three days added in September for the sake of a symmetrical year.

The name may derive from the Anglo-Saxon "ymb-ren," meaning a cycle, or from the Latin 'quator Tempora," or four seasons. The observances are most sig-

Editor's Note: After more than a year of travel, hardships in the desert, disappointment in Jerusalem, the Three Wise Men of the East finally approached a simple abode in Bethlehem. Last in the five stories on the Journey to Jesus, this one records their final joyful triumph of faith.

By GEORGE W. CORNELL AP Religion Writer

The house stood against a hillside. It was small, made of sunharden mud bricks. It had no windows. A narrow path led to the doorway, hung with a heavy wool cloth. Beside it leaned a woodman's axe.

As the wayfarers approached, the only sound was the crunching of camel hooves on the red gravel. It seemed quite loud. Melchior's lined face tensed. Neither he nor his two companions spoke. They stared ahead fixedly.

This was the place. This was their goal. This was the startouched habitation.

In front of the house, smoke curled from an earthen oven. A waterjar sat nearby, and a millstone. Off to one side of the house was a vegetable patch, and on the other, a little shed built against a Cypress tree.

Wood shavings littered the ground beneath the open shelter, other carpenter's tools, along with carpenter. some partly carved yokes and axeis.

So here the long odyssey endedin Bethlehem.

He and the other Magi, who had dedicated their minds, passions and physical endurance to the dream of welcoming God's Premier to mankind, stopped at last -outside a peasant's hut.

Its occupants were not in sight. The three stately callers slid to the ground. Servants, who had quit their burros, took the reins of the camels, tapped their necks and pulled down on the halters, signal. ye? ling them to kneel,

Editor's Note: After more than a year of travel, hardships in the desert, disappointment in Jerusalem, the Three Wise Men of the East finally approached a simple abode in Bethlehem. Last in the five stories on the Journey to Jesus, this one records their final joyful triumph of faith.

By GEORGE W. CORNELL AP Religion Writer

The house stood against a hillside. It was small, made of sunharden mud bricks. It had no windows. A narrow path led to the doorway, hung with a heavy wool cloth. Beside it leaned a woodman's axe.

As the wayfarers approached, the only sound was the crunching of camel hooves on the red gravel, It seemed quite loud. Melchior's lined face tensed. Neither he nor his two companions spoke. They stared ahead fixedly.

This was the place. This was their goal. This was the startouched habitation.

In front of the house, smoke curled from an earthen oven. A waterjar sat nearby, and a millstone. Off to one side of the house was a vegetable patch, and on the other, a little shed built against a Cypress tree.

Wood shavings littered the ground beneath the open shelter, other carpenter's tools, along with carpenter. some partly carved yokes and axeis.

So here the long odyssey endedin Bethlehem.

He and the other Magi, who had dedicated their minds, passions and physical endurance to the dream of welcoming God's Premier to mankind, stopped at last -outside a peasant's hut.

Its occupants were not in sight. The three stately callers slid to the ground. Servants, who had quit their burros, took the reins of the camels, tapped their necks and pulled down on the halters, signal. ye? ling them to kneel,

> 2 Rochester College Teams Handed Losses

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS Two Rochester, N.Y., basketball teams did not fare well with Ohio cage teams, but they were the only out-of-staters to be defeated Thursday night.

At Oberlin the Yeomen, sparked by Pete Lund, a 6-foot-8 sophomore who contributed 35 points. defeated the University of Rochester 70-56. Oberlin trailed only in the opening minutes in posting its second victory in four starts.

Baldwin-Wallace completed the sweep by edging Rochester Tech 79-74 on the New Yorkers' floor. It was the Yellow Jackets first win in five games.

Three other Ohio teams were unable to record victories.

Earlham College of Richmond, Ind., was never in trouble and tied only once as it defeated Heidelberg 79-64. The losing Student Princes dropped their fifth game in six starts, but salvaged the night's scoring honors as Gene Wenger dropped in 21 points.

Central State, which hasn't won a game now in eight straight tries, was a victim of Hope College of Holland, Mich., 83-72.

2 Rochester College Teams Handed Losses

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS Two Rochester, N.Y., basketball teams did not fare well with Ohio cage teams, but they were the only out-of-staters to be defeated Thursday night.

At Oberlin the Yeomen, sparked by Pete Lund, a 6-foot-8 sophomore who contributed 35 points. defeated the University of Rochester 70-56. Oberlin trailed only in the opening minutes in posting its second victory in four starts. Rochester has been defeated five

Baldwin-Wallace completed the sweep by edging Rochester Tech 79-74 on the New Yorkers' floor. It was the Yellow Jackets first win in five games.

Three other Ohio teams were unable to record victories.

Earlham College of Richmond, Ind., was never in trouble and tied only once as it defeated Heidelberg 79-64. The losing Student Princes dropped their fifth game in six starts, but salvaged the night's scoring honors as Gene Wenger dropped in 21 points.

Central State, which hasn't won a game now in eight straight tries, was a victim of Hope College of Holland, Mich., 83-72.

Ohio University was handed a 72-65 defeat by a strong Nigara (N.Y.) team. It was the Bobcats second loss in a row, both of them on the road. They opened the season with three consecutive victor-

In intrastate battles, Wilmington's Quakers boosted their Mid-Ohio League record to 3-0 by defeating Ashland, 72-55, and Cedarville, with Bill Reese scoring 35 points, downed Malone College of Canton, 89-85. Malone's Dan Murphy of Van Wert tallied 31 points to lead the losers.

GOOD HOPE - The Good Hope Lions Club was commended for its cal. community service by the principal speaker at the combined ladies night and Christmas party Thursday evening in Wayne Hall and was awarded a plaque for the next-tobest attendance in the district this year by the past district governor, Fred Blocher of Kettering.

The commendation for community service came from Robert Banghammof Wilmington, the speaker of the evening. In his talk he emphasized that community service by an group or individual is tied in closley with cultural and religious programs fostered by the schools and churches. The program was arranged by Charles Shaper.

The evening started with a steak dinner prepared by members of the WSCS. More than 100 Lions, their ladies and guests were seated at gaily decorated tables in a hall that radiated the holiday spirit with elaborate decoratios added to the warm friendly atmosphere of the
